Chapter 1, Laws of 2003 Second Special Session, provides a package of tax incentive programs for manufacturers and processors for hire of commercial airplanes and component parts of commercial airplanes. The Department of Revenue issued a Special Notice dated January 15, 2004, providing general information about the programs that make up the tax incentive package. This publication provides detailed information about one of these programs.

Effective December 1, 2003, a retail sales and use tax exemption is available for computer hardware, software, and computer peripherals when purchased by manufacturers and processors for hire of commercial airplanes or component parts of commercial airplanes. The exemption also applies to charges for labor and services related to the installation of qualifying computer hardware, software, and computer peripherals.

- ◆ The exemption applies to computer equipment not otherwise eligible for the manufacturing machinery and equipment (M&E) exemption.
- ◆ Qualifying equipment must be used primarily in the design, development, and engineering of commercial airplanes or component parts of commercial airplanes.
- ◆ The purchaser must provide the vendor with a completed Buyers' Retail Sales Tax Exemption Certificate, checking the appropriate box in Section 5 of this certificate. This form can be

- ◆ Purchasers who paid sales tax on qualifying exempt purchases on or after December 1, 2003, should submit an exemption certificate and refund request directly to the vendor.
