RCW 82.08.705 (as amended)
Exemptions- Dynamic Information delivered electronically

(1) The tax levied by RCW 82.08.020 shall not apply to sales of electronically delivered dynamic information.

(2) For purposes of this section and RCW 82.12.705, the following definitions apply:

(a) “Dynamic information” means any collection of data or facts that are updated periodically (not less than once a year) including, but not limited to, financial market data, bond ratings, credit ratings, deposit, loan or mortgage reports, underwriting or claims data or facts, insurance industry data, competitive price quotes, product quality and pricing comparisons, weather reports and projections, sports achievement summaries and projections, professional (legal, architectural, engineering, medical, etc.) research information, medical history reports and environmental and economic achievement reports and projections.