NEW! Now you can amend any filed return electronically

You can now amend any filed return using our new online amended return application. It's easy. Simply go into My account, select the return you want to change, and click amend. If filed electronically, the original return will launch allowing you to change the numbers you want to update. If filed on paper, a new return is presented and the corrected return can be entered. The application checks for errors, and calculates the tax difference. You can make a payment for the amount due, request that a credit be applied to another return, or request a credit or refund. Help us help you.

Keep your email address current

In these days of budget reductions, we send important messages to you through the secure messaging system in My Account—including time sensitive notices such as assessments, tax rate changes and delinquency notices. The secure system then sends you an email, letting you know you have a message.

Sometimes we find that the email address we have for you is not correct. To ensure that you are getting these notices on time, please update your email address in My account. Just click on My logon profile in the left navigation, then click on Update profile.

Sales to BC Residents

Effective April 1, 2013, British Columbia replaced its Harmonized Sales Tax (HST) with a provincial sales tax. This does not change the fact that British Columbia residents do not qualify for the nonresident sales tax exemption when shopping in Washington State.

Retailers may direct British Columbia residents to dor.wa.gov/nonresidents.aspx for an explanation of the nonresident exemption. If a retailer provides the exemption, they are liable for any uncollected sales tax if audited.

Do I owe use tax?

If you buy taxable items to use in Washington and you don't pay sales tax, then you owe use tax. This is true whether you are shopping online, from a catalog, or in a no/low tax state. The amount of use tax you owe is the same as the amount of sales tax that should have been paid. Visit dor.wa.gov/content/FindTaxesAndRates/UseTax/Default.aspx for more information.

Did you collect too much sales tax?

Businesses are responsible to collect the appropriate amount of sales tax on a transaction and remit it to the Department of Revenue. On occasion, too much sales tax may be collected. If you over-collect sales tax in error, you should promptly refund the tax directly to your customer. If that's not possible, you must remit the excess tax to the Department on your next excise tax return.

If you E-file, report the excess tax on the "Over-collected Sales Tax" line on the State Sales & Use Tax page. If you're a paper filer, add the amount of excess tax to the total amount due and attach a note explaining that the extra money is over-collected sales tax.

For more information, see ETA 3106.2009

Are you using your reseller permit correctly?

Use your reseller permit only to purchase items for resale. Do not use it for personal or household items, promotional gifts, or materials and contract labor for speculative construction. The Department routinely verifies proper use of reseller permits; misuse of a reseller permit could result in a 50% penalty or possible revocation of the permit. For more information, visit dor.wa.gov/resellerpermits.

Do you accept reseller permits? Verify!

When your customer makes a purchase using a reseller permit, please take the time to make sure the permit is valid. We have tools to help you do that. For information, including an instructional video, go to dor.wa.gov/resellerpermit.
