

Car Dealers and Leasing Companies Local Sales & Use Tax Rate Changes

Effective October 1 - December 31, 2013

Local sales/use tax changes

(Effective October 1, 2013)

Skagit County

The Skagit County Public Transportation Benefit Area (PTBA) boundary is increasing. An area around Big Lake will now be included within the PTBA. For more information, see the Skagit County PTBA Special Notice and map or verify your location using our Tax Rate Lookup Tool on our website at dor.wa.gov.

Motor vehicle sales, leases, and rentals

The sale, lease, or rental of a motor vehicle licensed for on-road use is subject to a tax of three-tenths of one percent (.003) of the selling price. This tax is in addition to the state and local sales tax. It is not due if the rental car tax applies.

Now you can amend returns electronically

You can now amend any filed return using our new online amended return application. Simply log into My Account, select the return you want to change, and click amend. If filed electronically, the original return will launch allowing you to update the numbers you want to change. If filed on paper, a new return is presented and the corrected return can be entered. The application checks for errors, and calculates the tax difference. You can make a payment for the amount due, request that a credit be applied to another return, or request a credit or refund.

Do you sell prepaid wireless telephone cards or wireless service?

Effective January 1, 2014, businesses that make retail sales of prepaid wireless telephone service must collect the Enhanced 911 (E911) wireless tax and remit it to the Department of Revenue. Prior to January 2014, this tax was collected by the provider of the wireless phone service. More information regarding this change will be coming soon and available at dor.wa.gov/E911.

Zapper Bill Addresses Tax Evasion

Effective July 28, 2013, Senate Bill 5715 (Chapter 309, Laws of 2013) makes it a class C felony to commit tax fraud using automated sales suppression software, commonly known as "zappers." Under the legislation, persons convicted of selling, installing, or designing zappers will be subject to an additional mandatory fine that is the greater of $10,000 or the amount of tax that the retailer didn't pay. It also gives the Department of Revenue the authority to revoke the business licenses of any business found using such devices and not reinstate a business license unless it agrees to five years of electronic monitoring.

Are you using your reseller permit correctly?

Use your reseller permit only to purchase items for resale. Do not use it for personal or household items, promotional gifts, or materials and contract labor for speculative construction. The Department routinely verifies proper use of reseller permits; misuse of a reseller permit could result in a 50% penalty or possible revocation of the permit. For more information, visit dor.wa.gov/resellerpermits.

Do you accept reseller permits? Verify!

When your customer makes a purchase using a reseller permit, take the time to make sure the permit is valid. We have tools to help you do that. For information, including an instructional video, go to dor.wa.gov/resellerpermit.

Do I owe use tax?

If you buy taxable items to use in Washington and you don't pay sales tax, then you owe use tax. This is true whether you are shopping online, from a catalog, or in a no/low tax state. The amount of use tax you owe is the same as the amount of sales tax that should have been paid. Visit dor.wa.gov and type "use tax" in the search box for more information.

Get notified about tax rate changes

Stay up to date on local sales tax rate changes by joining our Sales Tax Rate Changes listserv. It's easy—just visit our website at dor.wa.gov/listserv, enter your name and email address, click Join next to Sales Tax Rate Changes, then click submit. You'll receive an email notice at least 30 days before the change takes effect. You can also find information by typing "sales tax rate changes" in the search box of our website at dor.wa.gov.

Keep your email address current

In these days of budget reductions, we send important messages to you through the secure messaging system in My Account—including time sensitive notices such as assessments, tax rate changes and delinquency notices. The secure system then sends you an email, letting you know you have a message.

Sometimes we find that the email address we have for you is not correct. To ensure that you are getting these notices on time, please update your email address in My Account. Once logged in, just click on "My logon profile" in the left navigation, then click on "Update profile."
