6 Exemption information

Sales of digital products are subject to sales tax. Digital products are digital goods automated services. Examples of digital goods include music and movies that are transferred electronically, regardless of whether downloaded, streamed or otherwise accessed.

Sales tax also applies to prewritten computer software and remote access software.

Certain goods or services are not considered "digital products" even though they may be transferred electronically. For example, services performed primarily as a result of human effort in response to a customer's request are not a digital product even if transferred electronically. Other examples include internet access, telecommunication services, online advertising, data processing services, and payment processing services. For more information about digital products please see <http://dor.wa.gov/digitalproducts>.

Purchases for the following purposes are not subject to sales tax when the buyer provides a valid exemption certificate:

- Purchased to be made available free of charge to the general public: A business must be purchasing digital products, digital codes, and remote access software to make available free of charge for the general public to use or enjoy. "General public" generally means every individual and not a limited or restricted class of individuals, except that general public also includes: all individuals residing or owning property in a state, political subdivision of a state, or a municipal corporation; a group of individuals identified by minimal restrictions that any person can meet, such as a free registration requirement; and library patrons.

- Digital goods purchased solely for a business purpose: “Business purpose” means the digital goods are relevant to the buyer’s business needs. This exemption does not apply to purchases for personal or household purchases or for any activity conducted by a government entity. This exemption also does not apply to purchases of digital automated services, prewritten software, or remote access software.
- Purchases of standard financial information by qualifying international investment management companies: Applies to the purchase and use of standard financial information by a qualifying international investment management company. The bill provides definitions for both “standard financial information” and “qualifying international investment management company” and limits the amount of qualifying purchases to $15 million dollars in a calendar year. The standard information may be provided in a tangible format (e.g. paper document), on a tangible media (e.g. DVD, USB drive, etc.) or as a digital product transferred electronically. Purchases for resale or purchases of components

Sales tax does not apply to purchases for resale of digital products, digital codes, prewritten software, and remote access software. Sales tax does not apply to purchases of digital products, digital codes, or remote access software. The buyer must give the seller/marketplace facilitator a copy of their reseller permit or other valid exemption certificate when the sale occurs. The seller/marketplace facilitator must keep a copy in their records for five years. Sales tax applies unless the buyer provides this exemption certificate or a reseller permit.

As of January 1, 2010, the reseller permit replaced the resale certificate. You may apply for a reseller permit from the department or find more information at dor.wa.gov.

Reminder to Sellers/Marketplace facilitators: As of July 26, 2009, sellers/marketplace facilitators of digital products or remote access software must file the state excise tax return electronically. Go to dor.wa.gov to file online.

Seller/Marketplace facilitator must keep a copy of this certificate for your records.
Please do not send to the Department of Revenue.
