Instructions for completing the application

Complete Parts 1 through 5 in their entirety and include supporting documents to avoid delays in application processing. If you have questions, contact your county assessor's office at dor.wa.gov/countycontacts.

This deferral does not have an age or disability requirement. However, before you can qualify to defer your second half taxes you must pay your first half taxes. In addition, your income must be $57,000 or less, and you must have owned your home for at least 5 years.

Part 1

A co-tenant is someone who lives with you and has an ownership interest in your home. Other occupants are people who live with you who don't have ownership interest in your home.

Part 2

Check the appropriate box. See the Documents to Include section in these instructions to determine what to send for proof of age or disability. If you are the surviving spouse/domestic partner, heir, or devisee of a person who previously received the deferral, provide a copy of their death certificate as well as a copy of their Last Will and Testament if they had one. If they died without a Last Will and Testament, provide a statement explaining why you as the surviving spouse/domestic partner, heir, devisee are entitled to receive the property after their death.

Part 3

Details regarding your specific residence and parcel data can be obtained from your county assessor's office.

ADU Instructions

Beginning with tax year 2025, the definition of residence was expanded to include one accessory dwelling unit (ADU). This change can result in a greater reduction of property taxes for the applicant because the value of the ADU is included in the reduced valuation for the program.

Important factors that can impact your deferral:

- Number of occupants residing in the residence (main home and included ADU).
- Renting any portion of your residence (main home or the ADU).

If your parcel is more than one acre, but you are only allowed to defer the taxes on one acre, a lien will be placed on your entire property unless you provide a clear legal description for only the portion eligible for the deferral.

You can defer up to 40% of your equity value in the residence. If you have a homeowners insurance policy that you have Washington State Department of Revenue-Property Tax Division, PO Box 47471, Olympia WA 98504 as a loss payee, your equity value is the assessed value of the residence plus land minus the debts and encumbrances secured by the property.

If you do not have homeowners insurance or your policy does not list the department as a loss payee, your equity value is the assessed value of land only minus the debts and encumbrances secured by the property.

List the balance of all liens and obligations secured by your property as of January 1 of the application year.

Part 4

How combined disposable income is calculated

Per RCW 84.36.383(1) "combined disposable income" is your disposable income plus the disposable income of your spouse/domestic partner and any co-tenants, minus deductible expenses.

How disposable income is calculated

"Disposable income" has a specific definition for the purpose of this program. Per RCW 84.36.383(6), "disposable income" is adjusted gross income, as defined in the federal internal revenue code, plus all of the following that were not included in, or were deducted from, adjusted gross income:

- Amounts deducted for losses or depreciation.
- Pensions and annuities.

- Military pay and benefits other than attendant-care and medical-aid payments.

- Veterans pay and benefits other than attendant-care, medical-aid payments, VA disability benefits, and DIC.
- Dividend receipts.
- Interest received on state and municipal bonds.

These incomes are included in “disposable income” even when it is not taxable for IRS purposes.

What are deductible expenses

Expenses paid by you or your spouse/domestic partner (not reimbursed or covered by insurance) for:

- Prescription drugs.
- Treatment or care of either person in the home or in a nursing home, boarding home, or adult family home.
- Health care insurance premiums for Medicare Parts A, B, C, and D and Medicare supplemental (Medigap) policies.
- Durable medical and mobility enhancing equipment and prosthetic devices.
- Medically prescribed oxygen.
- Long-term care insurance.
- Cost-sharing amounts (amounts applied towards your health plan’s out of pocket maximum).
