Have had at least three years' experience in investigative work or its equivalent as determined by the director. A year's experience means not less than two thousand hours of actual compensated work performed before the filing of an application. An applicant shall substantiate the experience by written certifications from previous employers. If the applicant is unable to supply written certifications from previous employers, applicants may offer written certifications from professional persons other than employers who, based on personal professional knowledge, can substantiate the employment.

F Insurance, bonding, and firearms certification

Prior to approving your endorsement, we must receive a certificate of liability insurance or a surety bond.

Armed private investigators attend an eight-hour firearms certification course certified by the Criminal Justice Training Commission (CJTC), telephone 206-835-7300. When you complete the firearms training, they will issue a certificate. We cannot issue you an armed endorsement until we receive your firearms certificate. RCW 18.170.040(c).

G Applicant authorization and certification

Do you authorize all organizations and government agencies (local, state, federal, or foreign) to release any information, files, or records requested to this Department to process your application?

Yes No

I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.
