Sales to Canadian residents with delivery to package-receiving businesses in Washington

A number of package-receiving businesses operate in Washington near the Canadian border. Generally, these businesses accept and store shipments for Canadian residents that are made from online or brick-and-mortar sellers. The Canadian residents will then pick up the products from the Washington business and take them across the border. These package-receiving businesses let Canadian shoppers avoid international shipping costs and lengthy waits at customs.

The sales to Canadian residents with delivery to package-receiving businesses in Washington are subject to sales tax. The seller (the business delivering the goods to the package-receiving business) must also pay retailing B&O tax. These sales don't qualify as export sales as the products are picked up by the Canadian buyer in Washington and then taken to Canada. The goods aren't delivered into the export stream as required in WAC 458-20-193C.

Attend a free tax workshop

Business owners in Washington are responsible for knowing which taxes to report. To help new and small business owners, the Washington State Department of Revenue will offer, over the next three months, 16 free tax workshops at various locations around the state. If you can't attend in person, sign up for a live broadcast webinar that covers the same information. Participants will learn about Washington excise taxes, reporting classifications, deductions, tax incentives, sales tax collection, and record-keeping requirements. Attendees receive a workbook and helpful reference guide to Revenue's rules and regulations. View a complete schedule of workshops offered statewide at dor.wa.gov/Workshops, or watch a short streaming video version of the workshop at dor.wa.gov/NBOvideo.

Auto-generated or suggested gratuity added to an electronic check, bill, etc.

Many restaurants allow customers to pay through electronic means, applications (apps), on their customers' mobile devices, or through table kiosks, tablet computers, etc. accessed by customers.

Gratuity would be considered clearly voluntary and exempt from tax if the app or restaurant device did the following at the time of payment:

- makes clear that gratuity is voluntary by defaulting to a blank line or
- displaying $0 value for the gratuity that the customer can freely adjust after the meal or service is provided and clearly makes the customer aware the gratuity is voluntary.

The above bulleted examples outline instances where the Department will presume that gratuity to be clearly voluntary. To the extent the opportunity to pay a gratuity differs from these examples, the Department will examine the facts and circumstances to determine whether or not the gratuity is 'clearly voluntary.' For more, see our Tax Topics article on Gratuities (Tips) at:

<http://dor.wa.gov/content/getaformorpublication/publicationbysubject/taxtopics/gratuities.aspx>
