DETERMINATION
No. 14-0335

[1] WAC 458-20-185(301); RCW 82.26.130(2): TOBACCO PRODUCTS TAX. A tobacco product retailer who fails to keep required invoices of all tobacco products purchased is liable for the tax owed on any uninviced tobacco products, pursuant to RCW 82.26.130(2) and WAC 458-20-185(301).

ISSUE.

Whether a retailer of tobacco products who failed to maintain records evidencing its payment of applicable taxes on those purchases is liable for taxes due, pursuant to RCW 82.26.130(2).

FINDINGS OF FACT

[Taxpayer] operates a convenience store and sells tobacco products. On May 31, 2013, the Washington State Liquor Control Board (LCB) investigated the taxpayer’s tobacco product inventory and discovered that the taxpayer was in possession of untaxed tobacco products, and failed to maintain records evidencing payment of applicable taxes on the purchases of those products. The Department of Revenue (Department) Audit Division reviewed the information provided by the LCB and confirmed that the taxpayer’s records did not evidence payment of applicable taxes on the tobacco product purchases. As a result, an assessment was issued against the taxpayer for tobacco product tax, interest, and penalties, in the total amount of $. . . .

1 Identifying details regarding the taxpayer and the assessment have been redacted pursuant to RCW 82.32.410.
2 Document No. . . ., issued July 26, 2013, included assessments of tobacco products/cigars of $. . . , moist snuff of $. . . , interest of $. . . , and an assessment penalty of $. . . , for a total amount of $. . . .
The taxpayer appealed the assessment, asserting that it could provide additional evidence of its tobacco product sales and payment of taxes. The taxpayer also indicated that it was not open for business and engaged in selling tobacco products until July 1, 2012; therefore, the assessment should be adjusted for the period of May through June 2012. At the hearing on appeal, the taxpayer indicated that it would provide evidence of the opening date of its business and that it would welcome the opportunity to meet with the auditor for review of its additional records. The taxpayer was provided the contact information for the auditor. The auditor indicated the taxpayer did not contact him or provide any additional evidence regarding its tobacco product sales. The taxpayer did not provide any additional records on appeal or any evidence to substantiate its assertion regarding its business opening date.

ANALYSIS

Washington imposes a tax on the distribution and sale of tobacco products in this state. RCW 82.26.020(1). Tobacco product retailers are subject to specific recordkeeping requirements, as follows:

(1) Every retailer shall procure itemized invoices of all tobacco products purchased. The invoices shall show the seller's name and address, the date of purchase, and all prices and discounts.
(2) The retailer shall keep at each retail outlet copies of complete, accurate, and legible invoices for that retail outlet or place of business. All invoices required to be kept under this section shall be preserved for five years from the date of purchase.
(3) At any time during usual business hours the department, board, or its duly authorized agents or employees may enter any retail outlet without a search warrant, and inspect the premises for invoices required to be kept under this section and the tobacco products contained in the retail outlet, to determine whether or not all the provisions of this chapter are being fully complied with. If the department, board, or any of its agents or employees, are denied free access or are hindered or interfered with in making the inspection, the registration certificate issued under RCW 82.32.030 of the retailer at the premises is subject to revocation, and any licenses issued under this chapter or chapter 82.24 RCW are subject to suspension or revocation by the department.
