Oil Spill Response Tax Suspended

Summary

The one-cent per barrel oil spill response tax is suspended beginning April 1, 2013. The tax is suspended because the balance of the oil spill response account exceeds $9 million.

There are two components to the oil spill tax, which is reported monthly on the Oil Spill Tax Return:

- Oil Spill Response Tax – one cent per barrel (suspended April 1, 2013), and
- Oil Spill Administration Tax – four cents per barrel (still in effect)

The suspension of the oil spill response tax component decreases the total tax rate from five cents per barrel to four cents per barrel.
