FOREST EXCISE TAX
Reporting Information
Timber from Private Land and Public Land

Forest Excise Tax
Timber harvested in the State of Washington is subject to the Forest Excise Tax.

Registration
A Forest Excise Tax Registration Number is an individual account number assigned by the Department of Revenue to identify each harvester. (This is not a UBI number.)

Tax Paid by the Harvester
When timber is harvested from private land, the person who owns the timber at the time of the harvest is responsible for the Forest Excise Tax. Contractors performing labor and services for the timber owner are not responsible for the Forest Excise Tax. When the owner of the timber cannot be determined, the landowner at the time of harvest will be responsible for the Forest Excise Tax.

When timber is harvested from public lands, the timber owner is the first person (other than the public entity) to acquire title or possessory interest to the timber.

Export Restrictions
Please be advised that all timber harvested from public lands is export restricted. Purchasers have specific reporting requirements to the Department of Revenue, and logs must be properly painted and branded prior to leaving the harvest site. For a complete description of regulations, see WAC chapter 240-15. Contact the Department for additional information or reporting forms by calling 360-534-1324 or at dor.wa.gov. Search the site for “forest tax” and be routed to the forest tax page.

Reporting Periods
Forest Excise Tax is paid quarterly. For private land the tax is due at the end of the month following the quarter in which the timber is harvested. For public land the tax is due at the end of the month following the quarter in which the purchaser is billed by the seller for the timber.

Quarter 1
January 1 through March 31 due April 30
Quarter 2
April 1 through June 30 due July 31
Quarter 3
July 1 through September 30 due October 31
Quarter 4
October 1 through December 31 due January 31

Penalties
Late filing penalties are due on returns if payment is not received by the due date.

Forest Excise Tax Return
The Department of Revenue will mail tax returns at the end of each quarter to all harvesters with active permits.

All harvesters with active permits must file a return each quarter until the harvest is completed.

The tax rate is 5% and is calculated on the stumpage value of the timber. Stumpage Value Tables are published by the Department of Revenue twice a year for those reporting on the Standard Harvester return. Anyone who cuts less than two million board feet per calendar year has the option of using the Small Harvester return and calculates their tax based on the gross mill price minus the harvesting and marketing costs. For public harvesters, the taxable stumpage value is the actual amount paid for the timber in cash and other considerations.

Permits that are eligible for the EARR credit (Enhanced Aquatic Resources Requirements) receive a credit equal to 0.8% of stumpage value. Credit eligibility is determined by the Department of Natural Resources.

Harvesters owing tax less than $50 (after EARR credit is applied) for the quarter (combined private and public land), are excused from payment of tax. However, they must complete and mail the return to the Department of Revenue.

If there is no harvest activity in a quarter, a “No Harvest” return must be filed to avoid delinquency. Check the No Harvest box (✔) on the return and mail it to the Department of Revenue. Check the appropriate closure columns if the harvest is totally complete or no future harvest is to be reported. You may also call our automated line at 360-705-6708 to report your “No Harvest” activity on a quarterly tax return.

Business and Occupation Tax (B&O)
Timber harvesting is considered a business activity under Washington law. Small harvesters with no other business activity will become liable for the B&O tax and must register, when the gross value of the harvest (annually) reaches $225,000. For more information, call 360-534-1324.

Records
For purposes of audit, the records used to determine the amount of tax due must be kept available for review by the Department of Revenue for five years (RCW 82.32.070).
