SUBJECT: 2001 INDUSTRIAL VALUATION SCHEDULES

Enclosed are the 2001 Industrial Valuation Indicators for use in appraising industrial-type complexes. The index lists types of industries recommended for use by this schedule. The Personal Property Valuation Indicators should also be used in conjunction with this schedule for valuing equipment contained in its index.

The schedule is printed in two formats. One separates the trend and depreciation tables, and the other is a combination of the trend factor and depreciation. Both of these schedules are used as "multipliers." Due to rounding by the computer, you will not get the exact same answer from both schedules, but the difference is negligible.

When using this schedule for buildings, it should be taken into consideration that principle buildings in some industrial plants may not be single purpose in nature. In these instances, the use of the Industrial Valuation Schedules may not be appropriate. The cost, income, or comparable sales method could be the best indication of value. Additionally, in appraising a plant using this technique, current year additions and deletions to that plant should be recognized. These adjustments do not violate the revaluation cycle.

NOTE: Based on a thorough age-life study of the wood products industry performed by an Assessor/Industry/DOR workgroup, the declining balance depreciation percent for the wood product industry has been increased from 7.5 percent to 8.5 percent.

These schedules are published as a guide in estimating market value; they do not reflect abnormal or extraordinary obsolescence that when identified should be considered separately. Additional functional or economic obsolescence adjustments may be necessary where documented information indicates market value is not being obtained.

Any questions may be directed to me at (360) 570-5885.
