The Washington Supreme Court ruled Initiative 976 unconstitutional

On Oct. 15, 2020, the Washington Supreme Court ruled Initiative 976 (I-976) unconstitutional. Therefore, the provisions of the initiative will not be implemented.

The ruling leaves all affected taxes, fees, and charges in place. As a result, sellers of motor vehicles should continue to collect and remit the 0.3% motor vehicle sales/use tax on sales and leases of motor vehicles.
