New feature allows businesses to print reseller permits

OLYMPIA – July 23, 2015 – Misplaced your reseller permit? No worries. The Washington State Department of Revenue (Revenue) has simplified the process for businesses to view or print their reseller permit, which allows approved retailers and wholesalers to purchase items for resale without paying sales tax.

Taxpayers can access their reseller permit through their online “My Account” with Revenue. Prior to adding this feature, a business needing its reseller permit had to contact Revenue and ask for a reprint to be mailed.

“We listened to what our customers and our staff said would save time and are pleased to announce this new self-service option,” said Vikki Smith, Revenue’s director. “This is another way we are focused on providing a better customer experience.”
